February 7, 2010

Music Skills Class:

NO CLASS this Sunday. Next class is next Sunday.

From Rebecca:

For those interested in trying the Yoga tape I talked about at rehearsal it is called Peggy Cappy Back Care Basics - the website is peggycappy.com and order (or get) a yoga strap for the hamstring exercises. Definitely a great program especially for folks who never did yoga before; extremely well thought out and paced.

Singers, please use the choir website to reinforce learning of parts that we have studied so we don't have to continually re-teach the same notes.

New Music

Copies of 'Cheek to Cheek' are on the back table. Please pick up a copy and put your number on it.

WEB Page Link

The website link to the midi files is ptchorus.org/midis.html

The midi files can be downloaded onto your computer, where you can burn them onto a CD or put them onto an ipod or other gadget that can play music files. Since there are many different programs that can perform such miracles, we can't be much more specific than this. You can also just click on the link on the website and play them from the internet whenever you want, on your computer.

Patron Drive:

Rick Kirkwood will be talking about our fund-raising at the next rehearsal.

Chorus members are also encouraged to talk to their friends and relatives about the advantage of being Patrons (tickets to the Concerts, early seating, name in the program). If you are interested in the finances of the organization, please send an e-mail request to germaine68@msn.com and I will send you some of the recent financial documents.

Pre-sale Tickets: Each Chorus member is given 5 tickets to sell to family and friends. You are not obliged to do this; however, the tickets are 7.00 versus 10.00 at the door. There will be a ticket envelope with your name on it on the back table at the end of February.
